Crl.O.P.No.25071 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.56 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the first petitioner is none other than the brother-in-law of the defacto complainant. Due to matrimonial dispute on account of the defacto complainant suspecting the fidelity of his wife, the petitioners joined together and assaulted the defacto complainant with hands and wooden log. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the first petitioner is none other than the brother-in-law of the defacto complainant. Due to family dispute, a false complaint has been foisted against them. He would further submit that A3 in this case has already been granted bail by the learned V Metropolitan Magistrate, Egmore in Crl.M.P.No.31814 of 2022. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the first petitioner is none other than the brother-in-law of the defacto complainant. Due to matrimonial dispute on account of the defacto complainant suspecting the fidelity of his wife, the petitioners joined together and assaulted the defacto complainant with hands and wooden log. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
