Crl.O.P.No.25246 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 379 and 430 of IPC in Crime No.298 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners had alleged to have transported 1/4 unit of river sand by using two wheeler. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that they had purchased 1/4 unit of river sand from a dealer for personal use and at that the time of interception they were unable to produce the bill. He would submit that they have no previous case against them and without prejudice to their contentions, the petitioners are prepared to deposit an amount of Rs.5,000/- each towards any charitable organization or association. Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioners had transported 1/4 unit of river sand by using two wheeler without any valid license. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending against them. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.This Court in a batch of applications in Crl.O.P.No.13334 of 2020 dated 03.09.2020 had dismissed the earlier application expressing the opinion that the offenders despite several orders passed by various Benches of this Court regarding illegal sand mining and knowing fully well about the evil consequences affecting the environment and society at large and the implications thereon are indulging in the offences of illegal quarrying/mining, theft and smuggling of sand and minerals and that finding that the case comes under the category of cases of large magnitude affecting and impacting livelihood of a very large number of people knowingly and unknowingly, had dismissed the earlier applications. Subsequently, the order of this Court in Crl.O.P.No.13334 of 2020 and Batch etc. dated 03.09.2020 was clarified by the Hon'ble Supreme Court and the Hon'ble Supreme Court had not agreed with the broad sweep of the observation made by this Court in Paragraph 27 of the order in Crl.O.P.No.13334 of 2020 and connected matters decided on 03.09.2020 and had directed that the role assigned to the person would have to be considered on case to case basis.

6.It is the case of the petitioners that the quantity is minimum intended for his personal use and that they have no previous case, however in order to curb the illegal sand mining activities and taking into consideration the voluntary submission made by the petitioners offering to deposit a considerable amount to any charitable organization or association, this Court is of the opinion that the petitioners may be directed to deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand only) each to credit of the concerned District Mineral Foundation Trust, without prejudice to their rights and contentions before the trial Court.
