Crl.O.P.No.25435 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 498(A), 494, 294(b) and 506(i) of IPC, in Crime No.22 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the de facto complainant is that the marriage between the first petitioner/A1 and the de facto complainant was performed on 18.04.2019. The further allegation against the petitioners is that the first petitioner/A1 along with other accused have committed matrimonial cruelty and demanded additional dowry from the de facto complainant. The first petitioner/A1 has also married another women, where, the earlier marriage was in subsistence. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that a case of matrimonial dispute is blown out of proportion. He would further submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated by the respondent police. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal side) would submit that the petitioner along with other accused have demanded huge dowry from the de facto complainant and also threatened and abused her with filthy language. He would further submit that the investigation is still pending. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel on both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made on both sides, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
