A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA,J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 294(b), 323 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.549 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner celebrated the birthday of his friend in a public place and caused disturbance to others. When it was questioned by the defacto complainant, there arose a wordy quarrel and during the quarrel, the petitioners have assaulted and intimidated the defacto complainant. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been lodged against them. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the petitioner celebrated the birthday of his friend in a public place and caused disturbance to others. When it was questioned by the defacto complainant, there arose a wordy quarrel and during the quarrel, the petitioners have assaulted and intimidated the defacto complainant. He would further submit that the injured has been treated as out patient and no previous case is pending against the petitioners. However, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also of the fact that the injured has been treated as outpatient, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Poonammalli, Avadi District on condition that the petitioners shall execute separate bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned

Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioners shall report before the respondent Police daily at 10.30 a.m., until further orders.

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
