A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 6(4) of the TN Schedule Commodities [RDCS] Order, 1982 read with (7)(1)(a)(ii) of the Essential Commodities Act, 1955 in Crime No.296 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that based on the complaint dated 02.10.2022, lodged by the de facto complainant and the secret information received by the respondent police, during the inspection, the respondent police found that the petitioner was in possession of 1100 kgs of PDS rice, worth about Rs.6,000/- without obtaining any permission or license from the Tamil Nadu State Government. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not involved in the above said offences, a false case has been foisted against the petitioner. He would also submit that the petitioner is prepared to comply with any stringent condition imposed by this Court and he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner was in the possession of 1100 kgs of PDS rice, worth about Rs.6,000/-. He would further submit that there is one previous case pending against A1/petitioner herein. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. In order to curb the illegal activities of transporting PDS rice, the petitioner undertakes to deposit a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) as non-refundable deposit to "the District Revenue Officer, Coimbatore District," without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court. However, it is made clear that merely, because the petitioner deposits the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.

Accordingly, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) by way of Demand Draft/RTGS/NEFT to the "District Revenue Officer, Coimbatore District", without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court, on such deposit and production of proof, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.IV, Coimbatore on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who
