The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 380 of I.P.C in Crime No.305 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that the petitioner along with other accused committed theft of copper winding coil and iron core sheets from the EB post. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he would submit that the main accused have been arrested and they have been enlarged on bail and there is no previous case as against the petitioner. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the petitioner along with other accused committed theft of copper winding coil and iron core sheets from the EB post. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and the submissions made by the counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned District Munsif-Cum-Judicial Magistrate, Uthukkotai on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police on every day at 10.30 a.m until further orders.

[c] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either
