& W.M.P.No.27185 of 2022

wherein, a direction was issued to the respondent / Teachers Recruitment Board to reserve one post each of those writ petitioners in the respective subject category till the disposal of those writ petitions and as per the said direction, after keeping one post each for those writ petitioners, the Board has filled the remaining vacant posts, the respondent / Teachers Recruitment Board did not call the petitioners herein for counselling and did not issue any appointment orders as appointment orders if issued to these candidates under the provisional selection list, it will be contrary to the order dated 11.10.2022 passed by this Court in the batch of writ petitions referred to supra.

provisionally selected candidates for the subject Botany, Computer Science, Geography, History, Home Science, Physical Education, Political Science & Zoology on 13.10.2022. Further for the subjects Tamil, English, Mathematics, Physics, Commerce and Economics the Board issued the appointment order for the provisionally selected candidates on 14.10.2022.

It is stated that the recruitment for the PG assistants has attained finality by way of issuing the appointment orders. It is further stated that the vacancies for the above said recruitment is filled. Hence, the board cannot reserve any further vacancy in respect to any interim orders to keep one post vacant in future, since the vacancies are determined by the User Department. As per the request of the User Department, the board has filled the notified vacancies.

6. Admittedly, under the Notification No.01/2021, dated 09.09.2021, the User Department i.e., the Government has got the power to include new posts. extracted supra is unjustified, in view of the fact that the petitioners have already been declared / selected provisionally as they have been found to be eligible. In case, the petitioners in the connected writ petitions are entitled to the relief sought for in those writ petitions, necessarily the respondent / Government will have to increase the number of vacancies and therefore, the interim direction given by this Court on 11.10.2022 in W.P.No.24888 of 2022 batch directing the respondents to reserve one post for each of those petitioners cannot be a bar for the respondents to call the petitioners herein for counselling and thereafter, issue appointment orders in their favour, if they have satisfied all the requirements during the counselling.

7. After giving due consideration to the aforementioned factors, this Court directs the respondent / Teachers Recruitment Board to call the petitioners herein for counselling, within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and thereafter, issue appointment orders in their favour, provided they have satisfied the requirements of the respondent / Teachers Recruitment Board at the time of counselling.
