Crl.O.P.No.25880 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 336, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.379 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners in an inebriated condition picked up a quarrel with the defacto complainant, abused him and also assaulted him. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and the incident has happened during a drunken brawl. He would further submit the petitioner does not have any bad antecedents and hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioners in an inebriated condition, picked up a quarrel with the defacto complainant, abused him and also assaulted him. He would further submit that the petitioners 2 and 3 have one previous case each against them. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Heard the learned counsel and perused the entire materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6.Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Chengalpet on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty
