5. It is settled law as laid down by various decisions of this Court that the employer is liable to pay interest at 4% p.a. for the belated payments of the retirement benefits. In the case on hand, the petitioner claims that his retirement benefits were paid belatedly by the respondents and therefore, he is entitled for interest for the said retirement benefits. The petitioner has given a representation on 30.08.2022 for the said purpose. Since the representation has not been considered, he has filed this writ petition.

6. No prejudice would be caused to the respondents, if the petitioner's representation is considered on merits and in accordance with law in the light of the settled law, which prescribes that the employer shall pay interest at 4% per annum for the belated payment of the retirement benefits.

7. For the foregoing reasons, this Court directs the 1st respondent to pass final orders on the petitioner's representation dated 30.08.2022 seeking for payment of interest for the belated payments of the retirement benefits, within a period of eight weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order in the light of the settled law viz., that the employer shall pay interest at 4% p.a. for the belated payment of the retirement benefits.
