Crl.O.P.No.25906 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 & 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.635 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on account of enmity with regard to keeping of food for street dogs, the petitioners and the defacto complainant have assaulted each other, resulting in them sustaining injuries. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are neighbours and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been given against him. He would further submit that it is a case and case in counter. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that on account of enmity with regard to keeping food for stray street dogs, the petitioners and the defacto complainant have assaulted each other, resulting in them sustaining injuries. He would further submit that it is counter case and the injured has also been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Heard the learned counsel and perused the entire materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6.Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also of the fact that it is a counter case, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Metropolitan Magistrate No.XV, George Town, Chennai on condition that
