Crl.O.P.No.26574 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 354, 355 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.225 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant Malar is that her son is a practising Advocate and he had conducted a case in respect of civil dispute between one Jayaraman and his sons and later they joined together. On 10.10.2022, the accused came to the house of the defacto complainant, abused her and her son and also assaulted her with slipper and hands. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been given against him. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the defacto complainant's son who is a practising Advocate had conducted a case against the petitioner and enraged by the same, the petitioner had abused the defacto complainant and her son and assaulted her with slipper and also outraged her modesty. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also the submissions made by the learned counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Ulundurpet on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five
