Crl.O.P.No.26233 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.,

The petitioner who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 21(1) of Mines and Minerals Development Regulation Act, 1957 r/w. Section 379 of IPC in Crime No.268 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner had alleged to have transported 1/4 unit of river sand by using Bullock cart. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that he had purchased 1/4 unit of river sand from a dealer for personal use and at that the time of interception he was unable to produce the bill. He would submit that he has no previous case against him and without prejudice to his contentions, the petitioner is prepared to deposit an amount of Rs.3,000/- towards any charitable organization or association. Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (CrI.side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner had transported 1/4 unit of river sand by using Bullock cart without any valid license. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending against him. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.This Court in a batch of applications in CrI.O.P.No.13334 of 2020 dated 03.09.2020 had dismissed the earlier application expressing the opinion that the offenders despite several orders passed by various Benches of this Court regarding illegal sand mining and knowing fully well about the evil consequences affecting the environment and society at large and the implications thereon are indulging in the offences of illegal quarrying/mining, theft and smuggling of sand and minerals and that finding that the case comes under the category of cases of large magnitude affecting and impacting livelihood of a very large number of people knowingly and unknowingly, had dismissed the earlier applications. Subsequently, the order of this Court in Crl.O.P.No.13334 of 2020 and Batch etc. dated 03.09.2020 was clarified by the Hon'ble Supreme Court and the Hon'ble Supreme Court had not agreed with the broad sweep of the observation made by this Court in Paragraph 27 of the order in Crl.O.P.No.13334 of 2020 and connected matters decided on 03.09.2020 and had directed that the role assigned to the person would have to be considered on case to case basis.

6.It is the case of the petitioner that the quantity is minimum intended for his personal use and he has no previous case, however in order to curb the illegal sand mining activities and taking into consideration the voluntary submission made by the petitioner offering to deposit a considerable amount to any charitable organization or association, this Court is of the opinion that the petitioner may be directed to deposit a sum of Rs.3,000/- (Rupees Three Thousand only) each to credit of the concerned District Mineral Foundation Trust, without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court.

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police everyday at 10.30 a.m., until further orders.

[c] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
