Crl.O.P.No.26331 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.131 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to damage of water line, the petitioners have formed an unlawful assembly, abused, intimidated and also assaulted the defacto complainant with wooden log. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are neighbours and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been given against the petitioners. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are neighbours and due to damage of water line, the petitioners have formed an unlawful assembly, abused, intimidated and also assaulted the defacto complainant with wooden log. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending against them and the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Heard the learned counsel and perused the entire materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6.Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Vaniyambadi on condition that the petitioners shall
