Crl.O.P.No.26297 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 294(b), 324 & 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.437 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that since the defacto complainant did not provide employment, the petitioner had abused, intimidated and also assaulted him with wooden log. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been given against the petitioner. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that due to previous enmity, the defacto complainant did not provide employment to the petitioner, for which, the petitioner had abused, intimidated and also assaulted him with wooden log.

He would further submit that there is no previous case pending against him and the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Heard the learned counsel and perused the entire materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6.Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Poonamallee, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer, who intends to arrest or to the
