A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(2) of IPC in Crime No.289 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners had broken bottles in front of the ration shop and there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the de-facto complainant, wherein they had assaulted each other. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that petitioners are innocent and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that it is a case and case in counter. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioners had broken bottles in front of the ration shop and there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the de-facto complainant, wherein they had assaulted each other. He would further submit that the injuries sustained by the victims are simple in nature. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Kallakuruchi, on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like
