The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 457 and 511 of IPC in Crime No.240 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the de facto complainant is that the de-facto complainant and his family members were sleeping at his house on 17.09.2022 at 3.00 p.m., the petitioner along with other accused were trying to trespass into his house through balcony at that time, on hearing the sound, the de-facto complainant woke up and raised alarm resulting which the petitioner and others jumped from the balcony to road and escaped. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the petitioner along with other accused were trying to trespass into the de-facto complainant's house to commit theft. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made on both sides, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Arakkonam, Ranipet District on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand Only) with two sureties each for a like sum to
