4. Per contra, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner along with the other accused was found to be in possession of 70 grams of Ganja. He would further submit that the petitioner is an habitual offender and there are 2 previous cases of similar nature pending against the petitioner. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also taking note of the fact that there are 2 previous cases of similar nature pending against the petitioner, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
