The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.178 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are relatives and due to property dispute, the petitioners have abused him in filthy language and also assaulted him. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are relatives and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been given against them. He would further submit that the injury sustained by the defacto complainant is simple in nature. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (CrI.side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are relatives. Due to property dispute, the petitioners have abused him, intimidated him and also assaulted him. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Heard the learned counsel and perused the entire materials available on record.

6.Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days
