Crl.O.P.No.26636 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(i) of IPC in Crime No.235 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the de-facto complainant worked in the petitioner's shoe company. Due to salary dispute, the de-facto complainant left his job and joined for work some where else. When the same was questioned by the petitioner herein, there was a physical altercation between them wherein the accused persons had attacked the de-facto complainant using knife. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the main accused has been arrested and enlarged on bail. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the de-facto complainant worked in the petitioner's shoe company. Due to salary dispute, the de-facto complainant left his job and joined for work some where else. When the same was questioned by the petitioner herein, there was a physical altercation between them wherein the accused persons had attacked the de-facto complainant using knife. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate at Ambur, on condition that the petitioner shall
