The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 341, 323, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.503 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, a wordy quarrel arose between the petitioner and the defacto complainant. During the quarrel, the petitioner along with his friends have waylaid the defacto complainant, abused him and also assaulted with iron rod. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been given. He would further submit that he has nothing to do with the alleged offence. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that due to previous enmity, a wordy quarrel arose between the petitioner and the defacto complainant. During the quarrel, the petitioner along with his friends have waylaid the defacto complainant, abused him and also assaulted with iron rod. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police and perused the entire materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6. Taking note of the facts and circumstances and also of the submissions made by the learned counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
