4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are adjacent land owners and due to path way dispute, there was a wordy quarrel arose between them. During the quarrel, they had abused and assaulted each other. He would further submit that the injury sustained by the defacto complainant is simple in nature. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also of the fact that the injury sustained by the defacto complainant is simple in nature, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Vazhapadi on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees
