Crl.O.P.No.26833 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 420, 451, 294(b), 323 and 506(i) of IPC in Crime No.322 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on account of dispute regarding selling of property, the petitioner along with other accused had abused the defacto complainant and assaulted him with iron rod. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been foisted against him. He would further submit that the arrested accused in this case has already been enlarged on bail. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that on account of dispute regarding selling of property, the petitioner along with other accused had abused the defacto complainant and assaulted him with iron rod. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and the arrested accused in this case has been enlarged on bail. Thereby, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also taking note of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Thiruvallur on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five
