Crl.O.P.No.26800 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA.J,

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 342, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.425 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is none other than the brother-in-law of the defacto complainant. Due to matrimonial dispute, the petitioner has abused him in filthy language and assaulted him knife. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is none other than the brother-in-law of the defacto complainant. Due to family dispute, a false complaint has been foisted against him. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner is none other than the brother-in-law of the defacto complainant. Due to matrimonial dispute, the petitioner has abused him in filthy language and assaulted him with knife. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking note of the facts and circumstances and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Omalur on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees twenty five thousand
