Crl.O.P.No.26902 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 341, 294(b), 324, 307 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.524 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that during the temple festival, there was a wordy quarrel arose between the Petitioners and the defacto complainant. During the quarrel, the Petitioners have abused the de-facto complainant in a filthy language, intimidated him and also assaulted him with knife. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the Petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and due to previous enmity, the de-facto complainant has given an exaggerated complaint against the Petitioners and others. He would further submit that A1 in this case has already been arrested and released on bail. Hence, he prays for grant of

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that during the temple festival, a wordy quarrel arose between the petitioners and the defacto complainant and during the quarrel, the petitioners have abused him in filthy language, intimidated him and also assaulted him with knife. He would also submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case as against the Petitioners. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the Petitioners.

5.Heard the learned counsel and perused the entire materials available on record.

6.Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also of the fact that A1 in this case has already been arrested and released on bail, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
