Crl.O.P.No.27365 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 379 of IPC in Crime No.84 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners have illegally transported 8 units of gravel sand by using two Tipper Lorries without any valid licence. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that without prejudice to their contentions, the petitioners are prepared to deposit an amount of Rs.40,000/- towards any charitable organization or association. Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl.side) would submit that the quantity of gravel sand involved is 8 units. He would further submit that the petitioners have no previous case pending against them.

However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the

5.In view of the rehabilitation undertaken under the Tamil Nadu District Mineral Foundation Rules, 2017, and in order to curb the illegal sand mining activities, this Court is of the opinion that the each of the petitioners are directed to deposit a sum of Rs.40,000/- (Rupees Forty Thousand only) as non refundable deposit to the credit of the concerned District Mineral Foundation Trust, without prejudice to their rights and contentions before the trial Court.

6.Merely, because the petitioners have deposited the said amount, it would not amount to admission of their guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.

7.Taking note of the facts and circumstances, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

8.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail on condition to make a non refundable deposit of Rs.40,000/- (Rupees
