A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 341, 323, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.682 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are neighbours and due to previous enmity, the petitioner had picked up a wordy quarrel with the de-facto complainant, wherein they had assaulted each other. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that it is a case and case in counter in Crime No.681 of 2022. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that due to previous enmity, the petitioner had picked up a wordy quarrel with the de-facto complainant, wherein they had assaulted each other. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and it is a counter case. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also of the fact that it is a case and case in counter, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned
