Crl.O.P.No.27081 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA.J,

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 448, 294(b), 323, 324, 506(i) of IPC r/w Section 4 of TNPWH Act in Crime No.378 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to matrimonial dispute, the petitioners have abused the defacto complainant and his son in filthy language and also assaulted them, resulting in them sustaining injuries. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and due to family dispute, a false complaint has been foisted against them. He would further submit that they have nothing to do with the alleged offence. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioners are relatives of the defacto complainant. Due to matrimonial dispute, the petitioners have abused the defacto complainant and his son in filthy language and also assaulted them. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking note of the facts and circumstances and the submissions made by the learned counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Villupuram on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute separate bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees
