The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 498A, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.14 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant Yuvasri is that the marriage between her and the petitioner was solemnized during the year 2013 and further allegation is that her husband/the accused herein harassed her by demanding more dowry and driven her out from the matrimonial home. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent. He would submit that the marriage between the petitioner and the defacto complainant was solemnized during the year 2013 and that there was misunderstanding between them, due to which, the defacto complainant had left the matrimonial home, whereas she has given a false complaint. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the marriage between her and the petitioner was solemnized during the year

2013 and further allegation is that her husband/the accused herein harassed her by demanding more dowry and driver her out from the matrimonial home. Hence, he would vehemently oppose to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and the submissions made by the counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Sriperumpudur, Kanchipuram District on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police on every day at 10.30 a.m., until further orders.

[c] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
