2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the petitioners had attacked the de-facto complainant using hands and abused him in filthy language. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

attacked the de-facto complainant using hands and abused him in filthy language. He would further submit that as far as the 1st petitioner is concerned, he has got 8 previous cases pending against him. As far as the 2nd petitioner is concerned, he has got 1 previous case and as far as the 3rd petitioner is concerned, he has no previous case pending against him. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel. Taking into consideration the facts and the submissions, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the 2nd & 3rd petitioners alone with certain conditions. In so far as the 1st petitioner is concerned, since he has got 8 previous cases, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the 1st petitioner.

6. Accordingly, as far as the 1st petitioner is concerned, this petition is dismissed and as far as the 2nd & 3rd petitioners are concerned, the 2nd & 3rd petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the
