The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 448, 294(b), 323, 324, 506(ii) and 4 of TNPWHA 2022 in Crime No.576 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that there was a quarrel with regard to construction of a temple in front of the defacto complainant's house, during such time, the accused have abused and assaulted the defacto complainant and her family members. Hence, the complaint.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and she has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and she has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that there was a quarrel with regard to construction of a temple in front of the defacto complainant's house, during such time, the accused have abused and assaulted the defacto complainant and her family members. Hence, he would vehemently oppose to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and the submissions made by the counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Metropolitan Magistrate-X, Chennai on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.
