A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 448, 323 of IPC r/w Section 4 of the Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act, 2002, in Crime No.792 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the de facto complainant Selvi is that on 29.10.2022 at about 11.00 a.m., during the quarrel, the petitioners had abused the de facto complainant with filthy language, criminally intimidated her and assaulted her with hands and legs, resulting in her sustaining injuries. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioners are ready and willing to furnish sufficient sureties and to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that during the quarrel, the petitioners had abused the de facto complainant with filthy language, criminally intimidated her and also assaulted her with hands and legs. Hence, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the learned Counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned
