4. It is settled law as laid down by various decisions of this Court that insofar as the delay in payment of terminal benefits are concerned, the employer is liable to pay interest at the rate of 4% p.a. The petitioner has given a representation on 17.10.2022 seeking for the aforementioned relief. Since the representation has not been considered till date, the petitioner has filed this writ petition.

5. No prejudice would be caused to the respondents if the petitioner's representation is considered on merits and in accordance with law and after taking note of the fact that insofar as the delayed payment of the terminal benefits are concerned, they are liable to pay interest at the rate of 4%p.a to the petitioner.

6. For the foregoing reasons, this Court directs the second respondent to pass final orders on merits and in accordance with law on the petitioner's representation dated 17.10.2022, seeking for payment of interest for the delayed payment towards Gratuity, Earned Leave Salary and Commuted value of pension within a period of eight weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order after taking note of the fact that in case of belated payments made to
