Crl.O.P.No.27547 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 397 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.690 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with 8 other accused entered into the factory premises of the defacto complainant, threatened him and taken away his mobile phone worth of Rs.3,000/-. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that petitioner is an innocent person and a false complaint has been given against him. He would submit that even as per the prosecution, the allegation against the petitioner is that he had stood outside the factory premises and other accused only have entered into the premises and he has nothing to do with the alleged offence. He would further submit that the arrested accused in this case have already been enlarged on bail and A5 in this case have been granted anticipatory bail by the trial court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner along with other accused had entered into the factory premises of the defacto complainant and demanded mamool from him and also assaulted the security. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending against him. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel and perused the entire materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also of the fact that there is no previous case pending against him, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
