The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.497 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant Sujatha who is the wife of the petitioner is that due to matrimonial dispute, the petitioner in an inebriated condition had assaulted her with kitchen knife. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that due to matrimonial dispute, the petitioner in an inebriated condition had assaulted the defacto complainant with kitchen knife. Hence, he would vehemently oppose to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
