Crl.O.P.No.27809 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 324, 427 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.71 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant/Vijay is that he is working in a petrol bunk and due to previous enmity, the petitioner along with other accused had taken him to a secluded place and assaulted him with hands and beer bottle resulting in him sustaining injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case, since he happens to be the friend of the main accused. He would further submit that the arrested accused in this case has already been enlarged on bail. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that the defacto complainant is working in a petrol bunk and due to previous enmity, the petitioner along with other accused had taken the defacto complainant to a secluded place and assaulted him with hands and beer bottle resulting in him sustaining injuries. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending against him. Hence, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6.Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also of the fact that there is no previous case pending against him, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
