The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 294A of IPC and Section 5, 7(1) of Lotteries Regulation Act 1998 in Crime No.333 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that the petitioner along with other accused was found selling banned lottery tickets . Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and false complaint has been given. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the petitioner along with other accused was found in selling of banned lottery tickets. He would further submit that there is no previous case as against him. Hence, he would vehemently oppose to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
