The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.196 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is the wife of the defacto complainant and due to matrimonial dispute, the petitioner had picked up a wordy quarrel with the de-facto complainant, wherein they had assaulted each other. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that it is a case and case in counter in Crime No.194 of 2022. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner is the wife of the defacto complainant and due to matrimonial dispute, the petitioner had picked up a wordy quarrel with the de-facto complainant, wherein they had assaulted each other. He would further submit that the injury sustained by the defacto complainant is simple in nature. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Heard the learned counsel and perused the entire materials available on record.

6.Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also of the fact that it is a case and case in counter, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance, within a period of fifteen days
