The petitioner/A2, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.486 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are relatives and due to civil dispute, the petitioner had abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and also assaulted him with iron pipe. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are relatives and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been given against him. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending as against him. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are relatives and due to civil dispute, the petitioner had abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and also assaulted him with iron pipe. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case pending as against him. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Heard the learned counsel and perused the entire materials available on record.

6.Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in
