Crl.O.P.No.28061 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 448, 323, 506(ii) of IPC r/w Section 4 of the Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act, 2002, in Crime No.420 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on account of dispute with regard to water connection, the petitioner along with other accused had abused the de facto complainant with filthy language, intimidated her and assaulted her. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the de facto complainant and the first accused/A1 are neighbours and the petitioner has been unnecessarily roped into this case. He would also submit that there is no previous case as against the petitioner. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that due to the dispute with regard to water connection, there was a quarrel between the de facto complainant and the petitioner, wherein the petitioner along with other accused had abused the de facto complaint with filthy language, intimidated her and also assaulted her. He would further submit that there is no previous case as against the petitioner. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions of either side, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
