Crl.O.P.No.28209 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 341, 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.1180 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that due to previous enmity on account of an incident that had happened during Vinayagar procession, the petitioner along with other accused had waylaid the defacto complainant, abused him in filthy language, intimidated him and also assaulted him using stones. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been given against him. He would further submit that he has nothing to do with the alleged offence. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that due to previous enmity on account of an incident that had happened on Vinayagar procession, the petitioner along with other accused had waylaid the defacto complainant, abused and intimidated him and also assaulted him using stones. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending against him. Hence he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Taking into consideration the facts and submission of the learned counsel and there is no previous case pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Palladam, Tiruppur District on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty
