encashment of 60 days of earned leave, surrendered by him before his retirement together with interest at 18% per annum, based on his representation dated 13.04.2022 within a time frame to be fixed by this Court.

2. Heard Mr.V. Ajay Khose, learned counsel for the petitioner and Mr.A. Sundaravadhanam, learned Standing Counsel for Transport Corporation, accepts notice on behalf of the respondents. By consent of the parties, the writ petition has been taken up for final disposal

3. The petitioner claims that despite having admitted their liability to pay towards encashment of 60 days of his earned leave, surrendered by him while he had been in service as seen from the RTI Information report, the respondent /Management has failed to pay the said amount to him. In such circumstances, he has given a representation on 13.04.2022 to the respondent requesting them to pay the admitted amount. According to the petitioner, despite the said representation, the respondent / Management has failed to pay the amount and therefore, they are liable to pay interest at 18% per annum.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner has also brought to the attention of this Court, an order dated 15.03.2022, passed by a learned single Judge of this Court in W.P. No.5783 of 2022. In similar circumstances, a direction was issued to the respondent to pay the admitted amount towards encashment of earned leave together with interest at 4% per annum within a period of twelve weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of the said order. Learned counsel for the petitioner prays for a similar relief.

5. No prejudice would be caused to the respondent, if the petitioner's representation as referred to supra is considered on merits and in accordance with law in the light of the order dated 15.03.2022 passed by a learned Single Judge of this Court in W.P. No.5783/2022 and also taking note of the fact that as per the RTI information received by the petitioner, the respondent / Management has also admitted that they are liable to pay the amount towards encashment of 60 days of earned leave, surrendered by the petitioner, while he was in service.

6. For the forgoing reasons, this Court directs the respondent to pass final orders on the petitioner's representation dated 13.04.2022 seeking for payment of encashment of 60 days of earned leave surrendered by him while he was in service together with interest at 18% per annum within a period of twelve weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this
