The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 341, 294(b), 307 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.237 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that due to quarrel regarding non acceptance of soiled note in a shop, the accused have assaulted the defacto complainant with knife and caused injuries to him. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner's relative one Sowmiya had gone to purchase slippers, at that time, the Salesman in the shop has misbehaved with her, there was a quarrel during which the incident had happened, whereas the false complaint has been given. He would further submit that there is no intention on the part of the petitioners to commit murder. He would also submit that the arrested accused have been enlarged on bail. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that due to quarrel regarding non acceptance of foiled note in a shop, the accused have assaulted the defacto complainant with knife. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and the submissions made by the counsel and taking note of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned XVII Metropolitan Magistrate, Saidapet, Chennai on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
