The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 307 of IPC in Crime No.355 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that, on account of dispute regarding grazing of cattle, the petitioner has assaulted the defacto complainant's husband and causing injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and a false complaint has been given. He would further submit that it is a case and case in counter. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that on account of dispute regarding grazing of cattle, the petitioner has assaulted the defacto complainant's husband causing injuries. He would further submit that it is a case and case in counter. Hence, he would vehemently oppose to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and the submissions made by the counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-I, Attur on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police on every day at 10.30 a.m., until further orders.
