Crl.O.P.No.28922 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 4(1)(k) and 24 of TNP Act in Crime No.747 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found in illegal possession of 5 brandy bottles each containing 180 ml. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that this is the second application for anticipatory bail and the earlier application for anticipatory was dismissed on the ground that there are three previous cases similar in nature pending against him. She would further submit that the petitioner is aged about 62 years and in the earlier cases, the quantity recovered from the petitioner is very minimum and the petitioner is addicted for liquor. She would also submit that without prejudice, the petitioner is ready and willing to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- as non-refundable deposit to any welfare scheme of the Government and hence, she prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor on verification would submit that the petitioner is a habitual offender and that there are three previous cases similar in nature pending against him. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6.Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also the submissions made by the learned Counsel for the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
