COMMON ORDER

The order impugned dated 12.09.2017 reveals that the respondents have committed various mismanagement of finance and administrative irregularities in the matter of promotion and other related issues. The second impugned order dated 10.10.2017 reveals that show cause notice has been issued to certain employees, who had promoted irregularly and in violation of the rules in force.

3. It is brought to the notice of this Court that some of the petitioners have already retired from service. Under these circumstance, the impugned order, which contains certain general irregularities commonly deserves no further adjudication as the respondents have initiated steps to publish the rules.

5. Regarding the retired employees also, the official respondents have to take steps to settle their benefits without causing any undue delay. As far as the specific grievances of the employees are concerned, the aggrieved persons are at liberty to submit their respective representation to the competent authorities along with the documents, if any for the purpose of redressal of their grievances in the manner known to law.
