The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323 324 and 506(ii) of Indian Penal Code in Crime No.395 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as pet the defacto complainant is that there was a quarrel in the funeral ceremony of his grandfather, due to which, the petitioners had attacked him and also abused in filthy language language. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and due to previous enmtiy, false complaint has been lodged. Hence, he seeks for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that petitioners along with other accused had assaulted the defacto complainant and also abused in filthy language. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Gingee on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the first petitioner shall report before the respondent police for a period of four weeks and thereafter on every Saturday at 10.30.a.m., until further orders and the second and third petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30.a.m., for a period of two weeks and thereafter as and when required for interrogation.

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
