Crl.O.P.No.28444 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324, 448 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.900 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to non serving of food, there was a quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant and during the quarrel, the petitioner had abused him in filthy language and also assaulted him. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and during the quarrel, the incident has happened. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending against him. Hence, he prays for grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that due to non serving of food, there was a quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant and during the quarrel, the petitioner had abused him in filthy language and also assaulted him. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending against him. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also of the fact that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
