2. The respondent herein filed the suit for ejectment based on landlord tenant relationship. The petitioner herein filed his written statement and resisting the suit on the ground that there is no landlord tenant relationship between the parties. The trial in the suit has already commenced and it is posted for further evidence by the petitioner / defendant. At this stage, the petitioner has filed the present petition seeking to issue subpoena to the Tahsildar, Mylapore-Triplicane Taluk to produce land records.

3. It is settled law, in the suit for ejectment filed based on jural relationship of the landlord and tenant, the Court need not go to the question of title, the plaintiff can succeed in the suit by proving the landlord tenant relationship. In the case on hand, the petitioner seeks issuance of subpoena to the Tahsildar, Mylapore-Triplicane Taluk, for producing documents like Permanent Land Register and A-Register etc.,and this is not a suit based on the title, it is only based on jural relationship of the landlord and tenant. To determine the jural relationship of the landlord and tenant, Permanent Land Register and A-Register are not required.

C.R.P.No.3925 of 2022

4. The suit is of the year 2010 and the trial in the matter has already commenced and the matter is posted for further evidence by the petitioner/defendant. If at all, it is open to the petitioner to get the certified copies of the said documents from the concerned department and produce it before the Court. In view of the narrow scope of the suit, the documents referred to by the petitioner/defendant are not required to decide the real controversy between the parties.

5. Under these circumstances, the present petition filed by the revision petitioner at a belated stage after a substantial progress in the trial is not at all necessary and hence, this Court does not find an error in the order passed by the Court below. Accordingly, the Civil Revision Petition stands dismissed. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
