ORDER

The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 29.10.2022, for the offences punishable under Sections 342, 354, 323, 370(1), 370(2), 420, 506(ii) of IPC r/w Section 34 of IPC in Crime No.28 of 2022, on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused induced the defacto complainant on the promise of securing her a job in Combodia, received a sum of Rs.3,25,000/- from her and thereafter, they had taken her to Combodia on tourist Visa and cheated her. The further allegation is that the accused had compelled the defacto complainant to work in an illegal job. Later with great difficulty, the defacto complainant had come back to India. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been trapped by other accused. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 29.10.2022 and without prejudice to defence, the petitioner is prepared to

The Public Prosecutor (Puducherry) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner in collusion with other accused induced the defacto complainant on the promise of getting her job in Combodia, had received a sum of Rs.3,25,000/- from her and taken her to Combodia on tourist Visa and had compelled her to do illegal work and when it was refused by the defacto complainant, the petitioner along with other accused harassed her at Combodia and later, with great difficulty, the defacto complainant had come back to India. He would further submit that there is one previous case similar in nature pending against him. Hence, he vehemently opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.
