Crl.O.P.No.29981 of 2022

T.V.THAMILSELVI,J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.355 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the defacto complainant and that the petitioners have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and assaulted her with knife resulting in her sustaining injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been given against them. The learned counsel, on instructions, would further submit that the petitioners, without prejudice to their rights, are ready to deposit the amount of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) each to the credit of the crime number. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the defacto complainant and that the petitioners have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and assaulted her with knife resulting in her sustaining injuries. He would also submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. He would further submits that A1 is still absconding. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned II Metropolitan Magistrate Court at Egmore, on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a
